The Library Corner

Opening Day of our Griesbach Library was an overwhelming success. Children, Students and Adults came from all corners of the Camp, bringing their new friends who were just as keen to become Members.

The New Look of the Library gives everyone more room to browse around, and the Children's section is quite separate from the Adults'.

With an impressionable list of new Members already, we anticipate great demands on our Library Stock, and though there are 5,000 books available, a constant supply is needed to hold the Members' interest.

The Children's Department is in desperate need of many more

All Children's Books particularly, are very welcome and necessary in the Library.

Already Mrs. B. Kearney, Major E. Chamberlain and Cpl. H. Parchman, 17 ROD, have answered our call for Book Donations, and the Library Staff extend their thanks.

More about Books next month!

Who Said Reading Was Old Fashioned?

This avid group of Griesbach Library members is a good indication that it isn't, and that Television will never replace the book. The only problem remaining now is to provide enough books in the age category of the youngsters pictured above. To this end we again make the request that all residents review the books they have in their possession for which they no longer have any use. There's bound to be a few and there is always an empty shelf at the library where they will be most welcome as can be seen in the background. Won't you please drop them in at the library on Monday or Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., or Saturday morning from 10:00 to 12:00 noon. As an alternative, any member of your council will be glad to see that they are picked up.

Quiet, Please!

Besides reading, the atmosphere in the adult section of the library is also ideal for the concentration required in a quiet game of chess. Or, if a special project requires research, a corner is provided together with necessary material. Here also there are never so many books that there isn't room for more. Your contribution will be more than welcome and will help quench the ever increasing thirst for knowledge of our every age group.

The "In" Basket

Dear Editor —

With spring on the way (according to the calendar) and the consequent plea for "Clean Up", is there nothing that can be done about the ever increasing amount of garbage that is delivered to the door in the guise of advertising?

Barely a day goes by that the mail slot isn't cluttered with bits and pieces of paper, some in great volume, that once the door opens is taken by the wind and scattered to the four corners. What isn't scattered in this manner takes a direct route to the garbage in the majority of homes. When it gets to this point it's out of all reason since normal mail could quite likely be mixed with it. Even many important notices from local authority are disposed of in this manner in error.

Since normal news media is available for advertising, can the delivery of the majority of these door jammers, other than normal mail, be restricted from entering the area?

To Command New Service Battalion

Major M. I. Walton, MBE, CD, 40, of Calgary and Edmonton, Alta., and Ottawa, Ont., was promoted a lieutenant-colonel February 11th, and appointed commanding officer of the newly-formed Experimental Brigade Service Battalion at Camp Gagetown, N. B.

Major Kenneth W. Reed, CD, 40, of Vancouver and Salmon Arm, B.C., will replace Major Walton as commanding officer of No. 4 Transport Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, Winnipeg, Man.

Returns from M.E.

Captain Jocelyn St. Arnaud, 45, of Jarvie, Alta., Roman Catholic padre with Canada's United Nations Emergency Force Units in Egypt for the past year, will become the Roman Catholic Chaplain at Headquarters Calgary Garrison this month.

A member of the Royal Canadian Army Chaplain Corps since 1956, Capt. St. Arnaud will be remembered for the pilgrimage he conducted in April of 1958 while serving in Germany with the 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade Group.

Through his organization and direction 45 soldiers from the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada and the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery were given an audience with the Pope during their 15-day Easter tour of Italy.

PROMOTED

EDMONTON — Major R. W. Storey of Saint John, N.B., has been promoted to that rank and will be posted to the 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade Group in Germany as field cashier. He has been employed with Western Command Headquarters pay office in Edmonton since 1962.

A member of the Royal Canadian Army Pay Corps, Maj. Storey enlisted as a Gunner in the Royal Canadian Artillery at the outbreak of the Second World War. He was commissioned in 1943 in the infantry and served with the Algonquin Regiment in Northwest Europe.

Prior to his present posting he was assistant area paymaster at Calgary Garrison.

Scouts Receive Awards

Two long-service awards were received by Scouts within Defenders District Council in February. Scoutmaster A. B. Cummings, of Griesbach, and Cubmaster John Henry, of 1st Lancaster Park, received the 10-year service medal, badge and lapel badge, at simple ceremonies.

Leaders who completed the Pack Basic Leaders' Course in the fall and received certificates recently are: William Morey, of Griesbach, and Frank Green, Don Spence, Ken Hura, Andy Valentovics and Mrs. Dolores Valentovics, of Lancaster Park.

A poll was taken recently to see how many people watch television while they are at Beverage Rooms and Lounges. The figures were staggering.

And as members of our school safe drivers' club, be especially careful at crossings... The pedestrian you may hit could be your father!

QUEBEC OFFICER IN CONGO

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo — A cool-headed Canadian Army officer stationed at Kamina in The Congo recently rescued a wounded Congolese soldier and averted possible additional casualties following a land-mine explosion.

The officer, Lieutenant J. T. F. A. (Terry) Liston, 24, of Montreal, is a member of the Royal 22e Regiment, now serving in 57 Canadian Signal Unit with the United Nations Force in The Congo.

As liaison officer between U.N. Sector Headquarters in Kamina and the 2nd Battalion of L'Armee Nationale Congolaise, Lt. Liston was with a 160-man Congolese patrol at Kabongo, a village in Katanga Province, in mid-January when one of the soldiers stepped on a mine.

On arriving at the scene, Lt. Liston found that the explosion had killed one man and seriously injured two others, one of whom was still laying in the mine field. He organized the rescue of the injured man when he saw that the Congolese soldiers were unfamiliar with minefields.

Probing for mines with a bayonet for a distance of about 12 yards, he found and marked three mines, cleared a path to the wounded man and with the help of a Congolese soldier carried him out and administered first aid.

Despite Lt. Liston's efforts the soldier later died of his wounds. The second, less seriously injured, soldier was evacuated by helicopter to the hospital at Kamina where he is recovering.

Lt. Liston has been serving with the Canadian contingent in the Congo since last August. In October, he went to Kamina to command the Canadian Signal Detachment there. Two months later he was appointed liaison officer with the Congolese unit. In addition to liaising between the battalion and the U.N. units at Kamina, his duties include interpreting, translating written orders, organizing the battalion supply system and advising the unit training officer.

Lt. Liston, formerly with the 2nd Battalion, Royal 22e Regiment at Camp Valcartier, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Liston, 11917 Philadelphia St., Montreal.

Does Seed Save Time?

What type of person are you cars totalling $425.00.

when you get behind the wheel of your car? The "HARE"—nervous, exciteable, impatient, aggressive, and over confident or the "TORT-OISE" — steady, patient, dependable and understanding. Let's examine an example of each.

It's a Saturday morning and Mr. Hare has an important appointment with a firm on Jasper Avenue. He has had an argument with his wife which has not only disturbed him but also left him short of time for his appointment. He leaves Griesbach and travels down 97th Street, a distance of 4.2 miles. During this trip there are ten sets of traffic lights, five of which are red when he arrives at the intersection. When the light changes to green, he guns his motor, sprays sand from the icy surface of the road in all directions and accelerates up to 35 MPH. He has passed through three 20 MPH pedestrian crossing zones but maintains his 35 MPH speed — he's in a hurry. When he approaches the intersection of 97th Street and Jasper, the light has changed to amber. The frustrations of the past half hour well up in him and he decides to take the chance. He drives into the intersection when the light is red, directly into the path of a car driving along Jasper with the green light. Results, an accident involving damage to the two cars.

On examination, at 35 MPH it actually took Mr. Hare 10 minutes and 21 seconds to reach Jasper Avenue where he had the accident. In comparison, at 25 MPH Mr. Tortoise arrived at the same intersection in 12 minutes and 30 seconds; a difference of approximately two minutes. Was it worth it?

The Frills 'N Spurs are still square dancing at Namao School every Saturday evening at eight-thirty.

The club has lost its Horse-Collar, this symbol of the club was taken a Saturday dance or so ago. It is suspected that it was removed by the Beverly Nay-Burrs when they were visiting us that evening, now a square of so will have to visit them and steal it back.

An enjoyable visit to the Sherbrooke Shuffling Eights was made recently, where a variety of square dancing was enjoyed by all, dancing in the deep snow to qualify for the Snow Bunnies Badge also dancing on ice skates, for the Ice Worms Badge. To top an enjoyable evening, delicious Jello, whipped cream and cookies with coffee was served, also given away were Valentine and Door prizes, the latter won by a couple from our club.

On Saturday afternoon, February 16th, a square from the club travelled to the Youville aged home in St. Albert, and square danced for them. Also in the evening the club held a Valentine party. Nine squares turned out with six square dance clubs being represented. A good time was held with many games and prizes. The party closed with a very nice lunch.

The club is open and will welcome anyone who wishes to have fun any Saturday night.

Northern Alberta Champs

The Northern Alberta High School Girls' Curling Championships were played on the Griesbach Club ice on January 26th and 27th. Ten teams competed with teams from Wainwright, Whitecourt and Barrhead, matching rocks against Edmonton clubs.

The pretty quartet, above, were the visitors and will play for the Alberta Championships on February 23rd and 24th. From left to right are: Ingrid Eisfeld, lead; Margaret Stephens, second; Lynne Cowles, skip; and Elaine Souness, third; all of the Granite Curling Club.

Fish and Game Association

The motto of our association is fully, and are in no danger of extinction. Due to the tremendous advances being made by modern man into all phases of nature herself, a glance into balance of nature may prove worthwhile. The key appears to be IN-TERDEPEDENCE.

One likes to think that mankind is here to stay. Our presence on earth increasingly affects the survival and evolution of other kinds of life. But sanctuaries, no matter how well meant and tended, many merely postpone the day when the earth will have space only for creatures that adapt themselves to life at man's expense. No one has much good to say for the rat, the English sparrow, the European starling, the cockroach, or the housefly. Yet these are the animals that have altered their habits until products of our civilization serve them better than anything from their original homes. They complete with us success-

Western Command Ski Meet

The second annual Western Command Ski Meet will be held at Mount Norquay, Banff from 4 to 6 March, 1963. The meet will include downhill, slalom, jumping and biathlon events. It is expected that forty officers and other ranks will compete representing Army Ski Clubs in Western Command.

The Calgary Garrison Ski Club is host for this meet and will be making all technical and administrative arrangements.

Competitors from the Griesbach Ski Club will be Maj.-Gen. J. M. Rockingham and Lieut.-Col. R. D. Watson from Command HQ, Lt. H. S. Bloom, Lcpl. L. O. Berg, Lcpl. R. H. Andersen, Lcpl. R. A. J. Harrison, Pte. E. J. Johansen and Pte. D. I. Holopainen from 2 PPCLI.

Compete in Europe

Lermoos, Austria. — Canadian soldier-skiers captured a number of individual-event trophies while competing in the 4th (British) Divisional Ski Meet at this world-famous ski area during the past week. The 4th Division is commanded by Major-General J. V. Allard of the Canadian Army.

Sponsored by the division's "Quadrant Club," the meet included teams from the first battalions of the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada and The Royal Canadian Regiment of Canada's NATO Brigade.

The five-man Queen's Own team took fourth place in patrol competition and cross-country timing. Corporal W. H. Roushorne, of the Royal Canadian Regiment, from Victoria, B. C., won trophies in the individual downhill, slalom and cross-country events. His fourth win came as a "veteran" in the downhill individual competition.

Veterans under British Army rules are competitors over 35 years old.

For the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, Rifleman K. G. Kendall of Calgary won the novice downhill event, while Sergeant E. Aak of Toronto, took the novice cross-country individual trophy.

Other Canadians taking part in the meet, held under ideal conditions at this small Alpine town of approximately 700 population were: Lieutenant E. A. Peters of Calgary, Sergeant E. Aak and Corporal E. H. Grossack of Toronto, and Rifleman H. H. Miller of Edmonton of the Queen's Own Rifles; and Lieutenant A. L. R. Skating of Saint John, N. B., and Sergeant T. W. Paquin of Ottawa from The Royal Canadian Regiment.

Ladies' Curling Association

"See yon enthusiastic band All crowding round the Tee, With besoms in uplifted hand, And faces full of glee, And see, at further end one stoop, With earnest noting eye, Then follow up his roaring stone, With eager ecstasy."

See how it nods in conscious pride, They cheer it moving on, "He's raging mad!" one besom cries,

"Mo, Mo, she's a rare stone," Soop, Soop — no, no, it has it all, It takes their guard away, It strikes, it cannons, wins the end, Hurra! Hurra! Hurra!

And so it went, the closing game of the "A" event in the Reliance Bonspiel. The Charles rink edged out the King rink by one stone to capture the trophy. It was a terrific game both from the players' and spectators' point of view. Congratulations to Phyl, Wozny, 2nd; Mary Leach, lead. Runners-up in the "A" event were King, Mesbitt and Hitchman rinks. The "B" event winners were Manzuk and Bruens rinks; while "C" event went to Freeman rink first.

and Patterson second. The lucky draw went to the Hitchman rink, while Coggins and McIntee rinks walked off with hidden prizes.

Mr. Al Rowe of Reliance Moving and Storage, presented the trophy to the Charles rink, and Major J. Edwards, president of the Griesbach Curling Club, presented prizes to the remaining winners. We hope, in a later issue of the "Bugle" to have pictures of the occasion.

It was a most successful Bonspiel, thanks to a committee that was formed from Griesbach Business and Ladies' Curling Clubs. Thanks are extended to Reliance Moving and Storage who sponsored the "A" event, and to Flair Appliance & TV, Hancock Lumber and Griesbach Drugs, who were generous in their donations. Also sincere thanks to others, too numerous to mention here, whose invaluable help made the recent Bonspiel the success it was.

Namco Bonspiel is coming up shortly. Rinks entered from the Griesbach Ladies' Club will be skipped by Corinne Lucas, Phyl Charles, Inga Freeman and Bess King. Good game girls, hope you bring home "socm loot."

GRIESBACH CURLING CLUB

The battle for league leadership Sgt. Switzer; Sgt. Galbraith and is fast coming to a close in all Ssgt. Grimstead on one rink and leagues. Following normal league play, most of the leagues will wind up the season with a bonspiel played during normal curling times. Watch the notice board in the rink for your next draw!

Two men's rinks represented our Club in the Tri-Srvce bonspiel in Calgary from 8 to 10 February, 1963, but neither were able to bring back any jewellery. One rink did manage to win some liquid refreshment in a consolation event. Those who won the right to make the trip were: CSM (WO 2) London;

At press time another competition is being run off to determine the two Club rinks to enter the Alberta Area Championships to be held in our rink from 6 to 8 March, 1963. Both Calgary and Wainwright will send two rinks and the six rinks will battle it out with the two top teams winning the trip to Camp Shilo later in the month for the Western Command Championships.

ALBERTA SIGNAL SQUADRON

Postings continue, and we find vacated his chair and thus missed Sig. Morley and Sig. Bainbridge taking indoor training at the RCS of S in preference to the great outdoors. Sig. Morley has given up the many joys of working in the line crew (dig those crazy linemen on top of those crazy frozen poles) for the quieter and warmer role of teletype operator. Sig. Bainbridge has decided to pound a teletype machine instead of pounding the highways as a 7despatch rider.

Our Commanding Officer has vacated his chair and thus missed the local Muk-Luk Mardi Gras, however, he is participating in a larger winter party called Exercise Timberline. We trust that on his return he won't attempt to change our motto from "Velox Versutus Bigilans" to "Muk-Luks at the Ready."

Sgt. Carpenter and Hopkins are to be congratulated on receipt of the Canadian Forces Decoration. Our best wishes for speedy recoveries are sent to WO 1 Low and Cpl. Kinsman who are both presently in hospital.

We have had a good response to our appeal for orders for "The History of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals," recently published. This is indeed an excellent volume and every member or ex-member of the Corps should possess a copy in his personal library. Although February 15th has been set as the deadline for orders, all last minute requests should be forwarded to the squadron orderly room at once. After distribution of this edition, copies may be difficult to obtain in the future. The cost has been held to a very reasonable sum of $4.75 and most other comparable books sell for a minimum of $7.50.

With St. Patrick's Day just around the corner, we wish all the sons of the "Sacred Ould Sod" and all descendants of Ireland all the best. Beware if you are one to indulge in the "potteen" as the cratur" has a nasty habit of kicking back like Barney's goat and all Provost do not go along with the wearin' o' the green.

Preparations are well under way for our annual Spring Dance planned for April 19th.

HELP WANTED!

Captain R. L. Mathews, 2 PPCLI (top right), Sgt. Bill Morey, PPCLI Band (top left) and Mrs. Mary MacDonald (centre), provide the leadership necessary to satisfy the demands of their charges in "C" Cub Pack. Unfortunately all Packs aren't as fortunate in having an adequate quota of leaders and in some cases their need has reached the critical stage. A similar situation exists with the Scouts, Guides and Brownies, and unless additional volunteers are forthcoming to help in this worthy movement there will be little alternative but to reduce the number of Packs to coincide with the number of leaders available. Won't YOU please help?

Nuts and Bolts

224 Workshop R.C.E.M.E. have been most conspicuous by their absence in the last two issues of the "Bugle." However, with this issue we hope to redeem ourselves.

The Workshop is holding an "Other Ranks" dance in the PT Lounge PPCLI, on February 22. There will be a five piece band in attendance and a barbecued chicken supper will be served. If past functions are any indication this should prove to be a successful affair.

A recent arrival to this unit is Cfn. Ireland who has just completed a tour of duty in Europe. Cfn. Ireland is no stranger to this unit, having spent a couple of years here prior to proceeding to Europe, so he is quite at home.

Sergeant Brown and Cpl. Jim McGuire are presently attending courses at the RCEME School. Sgt. Brown is attending a Veh Mech Conversion Course, and Corporal McGuire has almost completed a Sr. NCO Course and no doubt will be back with the unit when this goes to press. We take it for granted that Jim will be fully qualified on his return.

S/Sgt. Hightower has departed to the RCEME School to spend a couple of months on course. Also Cpl. Egan is attending a Sr. NCO Course commencing March 25 and may be fortunate enough to remain at the RCEME School for the GOC's Inspection, which is held on the occasion of the RCEME birthday May 15th. We wish all these NCOs good luck for successful completion of their various courses.

At this time we have two lads from 2 Bn. PPCLI, Cpl. Annala and Pte. Ventress who are on assessment as potential Vehicle Mechanics. If they are successful we will no doubt welcome them back as transferees to the RCEME Corps.

Success that goes to the head doesn't usually come from it.

QUEEN'S SCOUT - WEAVER

RCAF Station Namao, Alta. — Wayne F. Weaver, 16, a member of Lancaster Park's scout troops, received the coveted "Queen's Scout" badge from Group Captain William K. Carr, commanding officer, RCAF Station Namao, recently. Wayne is the son of Sergeant and Mrs. Lloyd Weaver, of Welland and Lion's Head, Ont. Mrs. Weaver (left) attended the presentation.

Wayne is a Grade XI student at Queen Elizabeth Composite High School, Edmonton. He holds a senior bronze medallion in swimming, and, as a young artist, had his work selected for display at the Edmonton Exhibition.

Griesbach Senior Youth Valentine

The Griesbach Senior Youth Organization, the Protestant Chapel's teenage group, threw one of the most successful dances ever on Thursday, February 14th. The event which was held in the Number one School's Auditorium got under way at 8:00 p.m. with the C.J.C.A. Pharoahs providing the music. Over two hundreds people were in attendance.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Valentine Queen by Major J. D. Johnston, President of the Griesbach Association. The six girls nominated for the Queen were: Ian Cameron, Shirley Harris, Joyce Marlock, Sharon Taylor, Frances Woodcock, and Carol-Anne Wray. As each person entered the dance they placed their ballot in a box. After the counting of the ballots it was found that the winner was Miss Joyce Marlock. Joyce received a corsage donated by Tyler Florists, some cologne donated by Griesbach Drugs, a free dinner donated by the Rosslyn Restaurant and a free shampoo and set donated by the Rosslyn Hair Stylists.

The Prizes for the spot dancers were donated by the Odeon Bowl.

The Chaperons included Capt. and Mrs. Wray, Capt. and Mrs. Clarke, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Hamilton, Major and Mrs. Nickerson, Major and Mrs. Johnston, Cpl. McKay, and Brig. and Mrs. Leech.

Special thanks must be extended to Capt. and Mrs. Clarke, Carol-Anne Wray, Jim Leech, Jim Hamilton, Tom Ashmore, Major Penne, Sharon Taylor, Barbara Dodge and the janitor of School No. 1.

A POLICEMAN

You may have heard a Policeman has ice water in his veins, eyes in the back of his head and a hate against the world in general, such is not the case. He is, as all Policemen, a man doing a job that must be done to protect the lives and property of the general public.

If he should give you a traffic ticket, he is an idiot; if he gives one to another person, he is doing his job.

When he does his job well, nobody pays the slightest attention, but should he "goof" everybody knows about it.

When he picks up your child for doing such innocent things as shooting out street lights or throwing rocks at cars, he is a terrible man but if it should be someone else's child, it should have been done a long time ago.

One of the first lessons a Policeman learns is he can't please some of the people all of the time, but a Policeman may take solace in the fact that those who have no time for the Police, are those who have very sound reasons for their views.

Finally as a matter of interest, the word "Cop" is not a slang expression as many believe, but means "Constable on Patrol" and was used for the first time many years ago by a Police Officer in Chicago who wrote COP JONES, to his report. So it may be surprising that when the little boys say "The Cops are coming" what they are saying is "Constables on Patrol, are coming."

The Cub and Scout Mothers' Auxiliary

Within next few weeks, don't be too surprised if someone calls at your door and asks you to measure your waist-line! The Cub and Scout Mothers have done it again — a novel and fairly painless way to raise a few dollars. This idea was suggested by a recent arrival from another Auxiliary where it had been tried with considerable success. The members are busy making several aprons in appropriate Cub and Scout colours, and will attach this little verse to each apron —

This little apron is sent to you,
And this is what we want to do,
The little pocket you plainly see,
For a special purpose is meant to be.

Measure your waist-line inch by inch.

For each little inch that it measures around,

In the pocket put a penny round.
The game is fair you will admit,
You "Waist" the money, we "Pocket" it.

The aprons will be passed from one house to another, with members of the Auxiliary keeping tab on their movements. Each apron will have quite a number of little pockets, and the penny equivalent of (we hope) the largest member of the household will be put in one of the pockets, and a few stitches taken to prevent loss. The pockets will be emptied at regular intervals, and the apron returned to duty.

This should only take a minute of your time, and if every family in the camp gives their pennies, quite a useful sum will be turned over to our Cubs and Scouts.

GRANDMOTHER'S "RECEET"

We were recently informed by a young woman that years ago when her mother was a bride, her Kentucky grandmother gave her the following "receet" for washing clothes. It appears below just as it was written and despite the spelling, has a bit of philosophy.

1. bild a fire in back yard to heat kettle of rain water.
2. set tubs so smoke won't blow in eyes if wind is pert.
3. shave one hole cake lie soap in bilin water.
4. sort things, make three piles. 1 pile white, 2 pile cullord. 1 pile work britches and rags.
5. stir flour in cold water to smooth then thin down with bilin water.
6. rub dirty spots on board. scrub hard. then bile. Rub col-lord but don't bile — just rench and starch.

7. take white things out of kettle with broom stick handle then rench, blew and starch.
8. spred tee towels on grass.
9. hang old rags on fence.
10. pore rench water in flower bed.
11. scrub porch with hot soapy water.
12. turn tubs upside down.
13. go put on clean dress — smooth hair with side combs — brew cup of tee — set and rest and rock a spell and count blessings.

Hang this up above your automatic washer, and when things look black, read it again. It will also serve as a constant reminder of what is meant by "Living better . . . electrically."

PPCLI NEWS

Everyone in the battalion is now settling back into training after Ex Enow Chinthe III. A Guard of Honour was provided for the opening of the Provincial Legislature on 14 February, 1963. The Guard was commanded by Maj. G. E. Anderson. A platoon of D Coy under 2 Lt. J. L. P. Barbeau is at present carrying out adventure training following the trail of Thompson through the foothills in the Rockies, however, we understand he's had a bit of difficulty due to lack of snow. Alpha Coy. has disappeared into the frozen north to work with our southern neighbour for a while but should be returning shortly.

OFFICERS' MESS

The month of January and February have been ones of limited Social Activity due to the absence of the Battalion in Wainwright during exercise Snow Chinthe and A Coy. plus attached officers in Alaska on Ex Timberline.

One event of note during January was the visit of the Colonel of the Regiment, Maj. Gen. C. B. Ware, DSO, CD. A luncheon was held in his honour on Sunday, 20 January, 1963 with all regiment officers in the Edmonton area in attendance.

On 7 February, 1963 the Mess bid farewell to Lt. P. C. Bourdeau. Phil takes leave of the Army shortly to make his fortunes on civilian street. At the same time we welcome Lt. Paul LaPointe and Lt. Jean Gravel from the 1st Bn. Royal 22e Regiment who will be with us for next two years. Paul and Jean have been selected as exchange officers to brush up on their English language, and as they claim, to bring us into line with the rest of the Army.

Preparations are underway for the Regimental Birthday celebrations to be held on March 16. This will include the traditional Mixed Dining In Night for the surviving officers of the Officers vs. Sergeants Broom-a-loo match which will be held earlier in the afternoon. High-level strategy planning is underway to wrest the Broom-a-loo trophy from the Sergeants this year. Watch for results of this big match in an early issue of the Bugle.

SERGEANTS' MESS

The Sergeants' Mess began the New Year with a New Year's Levy. The members were present to greet visiting parties from the other Messes in the Edmonton Area; they then visited the Namao, Western Command, Prince of Wales, H.M.C.S. Nonsuch and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Barracks Messes. A most enjoyable day was had by all.

The highlight for the month of January was a cocktail party which was held on the 19th in honour of the Colonel of the Regiment, Major General C. G. Ware, DSO, CD. Special guests on this occasion were Lieut.-Col. E. M. K. MacGregor, Commanding Officer of the Second Battalion, Lieut.-Col. G. G. Brown, 1 PPCLI, Major D. Kearnes, Commanding Officer of the Regimental Depot. A delicious buffet supper completed the evening. The happy hours have been going strong every Friday evening and the Saturday night Bingos have been very successful during the month of January.

Major-General Rockingham observed troops of "A" Company, 2 PPCLI, deploying into the forest surrounding Quartz Lake following their parachute assault behind "enemy" lines. Can you spot the two soldiers at right rear?

SPLIT LEVEL PILL BOX

Two Princess Patricia's keep a sharp lookout in their hand-built lean-to in Alaska following their parachute assault behind "enemy" lines. Their position was located on a ridge overlooking Healy Lake where they expected a parachute landing by American troops of "F" Company, 23rd Infantry, 1st Battle Group.

BAKED ALASKA AU FROST-BITE

PLEASE NOTE

The Wednesday morning services during the season of Lent will be followed by breakfast in the conference room of the Chapel. The Women's Auxiliary have kindly agreed to provide these breakfasts.

On Good Friday the Choir of St. John's Chapel will present Stainer's Crucifixion. This involved a great amount of time and effort on behalf of the Choir and the director, and it is hoped that a goodly number of the congregation will attend this service.

Easter Day is Family Sunday and no Sunday School will be held. Children are asked to attend Chapel with their parents.

Confirmation Services

The United Church Confirmation Service will be held on Palm Sunday, April 7th, at 7:00 p.m.

The Anglican Confirmation Service will be held in St. John's Chapel on April 21, at 7:00 p.m. The congregation is asked to make a special effort to attend these services and so support those being confirmed with their presence and prayers.

LENT, 1963

We live in the era of the "buy now pay later" plan. The cost of any particular item presumably matters little for we don't have to pay for it at the moment. The hidden implication of much advertising today is that we don't have to pay for what we get — at least not much!

Many people carry this sort of thinking over into their religious life and are very surprised, even upset, at a faith that dares to speak the succinct words of our Lord: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Self denial is not our strong point.

Yet every year as Lent comes around we again have impressed on us that "man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God." In other words there is no "buy now pay later" plan in the Christian life. So one can enjoy the fruits of faith without paying the cost.

Surprisingly enough the greatest and most necessary cost is that we take more time for God and a bit for ourselves — essentially self denial. One of the ancients — Anselm — put it this way:

"Flee now, for a little while, these accustomed occupations;

Hide thyself for a brief moment from thy tumultuous thoughts;

Cast aside thy cares; postpone thy toilsome engagements;

Devote thyself awhile to God; Repose for a moment in Him;

Enter into the sanctuary of thy soul,

Exclude thence all else but God and whatever may aid thee in finding Him;

Then, within the closed doors, inquire after thy God."

LENTEN REGULATIONS

A) MILITARY PERSONNEL AND DND EMPLOYEES

Are dispensed of the Law of Fast and Abstinence every day of the year except on ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY.

- 1) All the members of the Canadian land, sea or air Armed Forces in service receiving pay.
- 2) All the faithful of both sexes, lay or religious, in regular service with the Armed Forces in any capacity whatsoever, provided they reside habitually in the camps or in places reserved for the Armed Forces.

B) DEPENDENTS OF MILITARY PERSONNEL

Wives of members of the Canadian Armed Forces (Regular), their children, relatives, employees and members of the household, may use the privilege described in the preceding paragraphs:

When in Canada, they reside in military posts or in Married Personnel quarters.

C) DEPENDENTS OF MILITARY PERSONNEL LIVING OUT OF THE CAMPS IN CANADA

The families of military personnel residing outside of military camps in Canada are not subject to the jurisdiction of the Military Vicar; this explains why they are not exempt from the obligation of Fast and Abstinence. They are bound to adhere to the laws of the Diocese in which they live.

However, according to the interpretation of Theologians, they are exempt from abstaining when the serviceman, who has a right to eat meat takes his meal at home. This is based on the assumption that in most cases, it is morally impossible to prepare two different meals at the same time.

Let us sum up the rules of fast and abstinence.

ABSTINENCE

All the faithful who have completed their seventh year and who enjoy the use of reason are bound by the law of abstinence.

The law of abstinence forbids the use of meat, as well as the blood, fat, marrow of animals who are born and live on the land. This law does not forbid the use of eggs, dairy products (milk, cream, butter, cheese), oleomargarine, as well as seasoning, flavouring or dressing even if there are the products of animal fat.

FASTING

All the faithful from the completion of their 21st year to the beginning of their 60th year are bound by the laws of fasting.

The law of fasting prescribes that only one full meal may be taken each day.

Accepted custom permits the taking of two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, but together they must not equal another full meal.

Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids including milk and fruit juices are allowed.

The lessening of these laws must not induce us to forget the spirit of the holy season of Lent during which the Church reminds us with more insistence than ever of the obligation to do penance, and encourages us to offer just reparation for our sins and to follow in the footsteps of Our Saviour who suffered and died for us.

We earnestly exhort the faithful to pray with increased fervour, especially for the intentions of the Holy Father. Daily attendance at Mass, frequent Holy Communion, more regular attendance at the public exercises, family Rosary, generous support at Charitable endeavours, the visitation of the sick, the old and the poor, personal mortification through abstaining from alcoholic beverages, from elaborate menus, and from wordly amusements, are strongly recommended.

OTHER DIRECTIVES:

- 1) Almsgiving, which normally goes hand in hand with penance, should replace the former severity of the Lenten regulations.

2) Once per week in each Chapel on a day and at an hour designated by the Chaplain, public devotions, which are to include the Way of the Cross, will be held.

3) The time for the fulfilment of the precept governing Easter Duty according to the general law of the Church extends from Palm Sunday to the Sunday after Easter. However, subject of the Military Vicar may fulfil this precept at any time of the year, if they so desire.

ST. JOHN'S W.A. REPORT

On Tuesday, February 12, the St. John's Women's Auxiliary met in the Chapel Conference Rooms at 8:00 p.m. There was a good attendance but we always have room for more, therefore we would like to extend an invitation to all newcomers to come and join us. Our meetings are held on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. If transportation is needed you may contact any of the following ladies: Old section, Mrs. Nickerson GR 75327, Mrs. Hutchinson GR 78387. New Section — Mrs. Jarvis 477-963, or Mrs. Cardy 474-3289.

The W.A. is sponsoring a family bean supper on Saturday, March 2nd, at the P.T. Lounge. Admission is 35c per person. There will be surprise entertainment and from all accounts the entertainment alone will be worth the price of admission.

We are also holding an Easter Fashion Show at No. 1 School on Tuesday evening, March 26th.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA CHAPEL C.W.A. NEWS

The February meeting of "Our Lady of Fatima" C.W.A. was held in the chaplain's quarter on Monday, February 4th.

Further planning for the Giant Bingo to be held March 29th were made. The executive was to meet with the Church Committee Tuesday, February 12th to finalize plans. As well as cash prizes merchandise will be given as bonuses. The Bingo is to be held in the auditorium of Griesbach School No. 1. Soft drinks, hot coffee and candy bars will be on sale. For further details see the advertisement in this edition of the Bugle.

Father Leduc showed more of his slides of Israel, Jordan and Egypt. The arid desert and sweltering heat shown in the slides was quite a contrast to our winter weather. Lunch was then served.

Mrs. Small was the winner of our monthly draw.

Omitted from last monthly report was the presentation of a cup and saucer to Mrs. Sutherland who is leaving the parish. That she will be greatly missed is needless to say as she was such an active and willing worker in any chapel function.

On Wednesday, February 13, the C.W.A. entertained the ladies of St. John's Chapel in the teachers' room at School No. 1. The entertainment for the evening was a very funny film "Holiday in Paris" starring Bob Hope and an interesting French comic Fernandel. After the film and conversation lunch was served. The luncheon table was decorated in a Valentine theme with a snowy white tree all in bloom with red hearts and flowers as a centerpiece. Tall red candles set of the heart strewed table cloth and the colorful plates of sandwiches and dainties. Coffee and tea were served as well as a good amount of conversation. It was a very enjoyable evening.

The fashions to be shown are from Johnston Walkers. There will be Easter novelties and home baking for sale. We would like to see a good attendance at this affair. Won't you plan to attend?

TOWN TALK

The Feminine Side

By Irene Macdonald

One of the main events on the social calendar this month, will be the Family Supper by the Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Chapel on Saturday, March 2nd, in the Lounge of the Physical Training Building. Mouth-watering home baked beans and brown bread, salad, dessert, coffee and milk will be served between 5:00 and 7:00 p.m. Price of admission — just 35 cents.

After completing your shopping in the afternoon, ladies, don't drag your tired husband and children home to a hurriedly prepared supper and a bad case of indigestion. Join the ladies of the Auxiliary in a leisurely home cooked meal, chat with your friends and relax. There will even be entertainment — at no extra charge, of course! For those without transportation, there will be cars to drive you to the P.T. building. These will be waiting at St. John's Chapel at 4:45 p.m. So you see, you have no excuse to miss this delightfully different outing.

Another date to circle with red ink is Tuesday evening, March 26th, when it will be possible for you to view a "really big" Fashion Show sponsored by the St. John's W.A. Fashions will be by Johnstone Walker Ltd., and the show will commence at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium of No. 1 School. A wide variety of outfits from casual to cocktail wear will be modelled. Be sure to buy your ticket for this coming event, we know you will enjoy it.

Speaking of fashions, here are a few tips you might find helpful. When planning a wardrobe, try to choose two colors that suit you and build around these. Remember never to wear more than three different colors at a time! And never more than three accessories in the same color! Large ear-rings should never be worn with large necklaces, and outsize pins and necklaces on a print or striped dress are definitely out. Good accessories on an inexpensive dress can work miracles, but do not overplay these. Purse and shoes should match, and gloves must reach cuff of coat or suit.

Brown pork in heated salad oil in skillet 5 minutes. Add water chestnuts, onion and garlic; cook 3 minutes longer. Remove from heat; add soy beans and remaining 1/2 tsp. salt. ## The Case of the Addled Architect

by Joan Hornby

Somewhere in the wide reaches of this vast country of ours there lurks a mad architect. Somewhere, probably in a secret room beneath a particularly well designed split-level, he is concocting new and subtle schemes for the torture of innocent people. Only a deep seated hatred of humanity in general and women in particular can account for the dastardly devices this ruthless artisan has used on unsuspecting people. Like us, for instance.

We moved into this house nearly six years ago. Our first real home. Dewy eyed and innocent we were led like lambs to the slaughter. We were enthralled by the huge ad in the paper one night, describing the opening of a new development of semi-detached homes to be made available to low income renters. It described in glowing terms the two and three bedroom units complete with refrigerator and stove, easy care floors, full basement, downstairs bathroom, and traffic free play areas already landscaped. It sounded ideal.

When we made our initial tour of the place a few things that would have shrieked warning claxons to a more experienced housewife seemed to me to be minor inconveniences. For instance, the bathroom opening directly, almost, onto the rear entrance door. The glib realtor, of course, praised this as an advantage built in especially for the convenience of young mothers. Children playing outdoors, coming in dusty or muddy, don't have to track all through the house to reach the bathroom. He didn't point out, however, that since there is only lawn and sidewalk at the front of the house, and the car park area is at the back, that this entrance would be the main entrance to all callers. Rather than seem indelicate, I will leave you to imagine the inconvenience this arrangement can cause.

The fact that the dining room was down the hall from the kitchen seemed a might inconvenient.

— but we solved this for the first couple of years by using it as a bedroom, and making the kitchen do double duty. Besides, we had no dining room furniture.

It wasn't until we had lived in the house for a few years that I began to suspect the motives of the architect, — and soon I was sure that all these seemingly small inconveniences were pre-planned by him as a sort of modern day water torture.

The kitchen for instance, is long and narrow, and I'm sure that most normal architects would have chosen to place the cupboards along the outside long wall, with a sink in the centre and a window over it, the stove and fridge conveniently together on one of the end wall, leaving ample space for table and chairs, and for the free movement of more than one person at a time. Not THIS architect.

He planned a couple of inadequate cupboards crammed on the inside end wall, a sink in the centre to take up most of the already scanty counter space, and nothing to look at while you wash dishes but an expanse of uninspiring white wall. The over-the-sink cupboards are diabolically planned to be at just the right height to hit you either in the eye or on the temple, depending on your height, — and the doors are cleverly balanced to swing open at the slightest provocation.

The fridge and stove, instead of side by side, are placed directly across from each other. In an already narrow kitchen you can imagine the bottleneck this can create. I've come to believe that the architect, as a boy (yes, I'm SURE he's a man, no woman would dream of designing a house like this one) had to help considerably in the kitchen. He nursed his resentment silently and then designed this kitchen to make sure that the woman who used it would work alone, if only for the reason that she would be unable to get anyone into the kitchen with her unless they were seated quietly at the table.

I vowed to foil him on this point. I decided I would move either the stove or the fridge. The fridge seemed easiest, so I tried that first and discovered why he planned two tall windows instead of one long one. I couldn't move the fridge to the left without placing it directly in front of one of the windows and blocking off one set of lower cupboards, and moving it even a few inches to the right meant it would be next to impossible to move the chairs out from the table. So I decided to move it across the room side by side with the stove. But our architect had thought of that, not only was there no base plug without threading the wire around the door frame into the living room and around another door frame into the front hall, but the hot air outlet for the kitchen is situated just a few inches from the stove. If I tried to put the fridge there it would burn out its motor trying to keep cool while the room itself would be impossible to heat.

Well if I couldn't move the fridge, I'd move the stove! That's what I thought! Not only would I have to move it away from the gas main, but a few inches to right or left would place it either in one of the two doorways or in front of that hot air register. He had me foiled.

The bathroom is most effectively booby-trapped. His queer twisted mind must have been trying to seek revenge for some long remembered embarrassment, — because this bathroom can practically guarantee embarrassment at one time or another. The bathroom having two outside walls, with a northern exposure is, in winter, the coldest room in the house. I think HE made doubly sure of this by calling for NO insulation in this area, so that icy drafts would continually sweep back and forth across the floor. The tub is situated against one of the outside walls so that in winter the porcelain is always icy. Even with a tub of water hot enough to turn you lobster red you dare not lean back, the icy touch of that tub is enough to send goose bumps racing from the nape of your neck to the tips of your toes. The toilet is situated so that it faces the outside wall, the wall that holds the rear entrance door. The bathroom door is hung so that when it opens it reveals instead of conceals any occupant of the bathroom. The outer door is also hung so that it swings away from the bathroom. As you can imagine this little arrangement can give rise to all sorts of Human Comedies, especially when there are Little People in the house, who have yet to learn all of the proprieties. HE probably rubbed his hands in unholy glee as he pencilled in the lines that would indicate just how the doors would swing. Just as an added touch (to add insult to injury) the bathroom hot air register is placed just six inches from the toilet. Need I say more.

The other rooms aren't quite so bad. I mean, what can you DO to a living room or bedroom. He did put a couple of sneaky little projections in the living room inconveniently placed. It's hard to find a place for the TV that does have a base plug and doesn't have a hot air register, but with a little ingenuity these things can be surmounted. Since the house is what is known as a "storey and a half" the bedrooms upstairs do have their own little inconveniences. Each has one wall that slants up to the ceiling, the windows, of course, are placed in the opposite wall, and by a judicious arrangement of doors and closets the wily architect has provided a real puzzle in placing furniture. Practically the only place for the bed is against the slanted wall, which makes for many bumped heads and helps to increase the vocabulary — especially during the daily bed making, or if it applies, the nightly bottle warming stint, when you leap from bed at the first sound of that plaintive wail.

The stairway is arranged with a right angle turn on the third stair from the bottom. This is to make sure that any large piece of furniture going up or down the stairs will receive at least one or two scraped or scratches.

This scheming fellow was nothing if not thorough. He didn't even forget the basement. The stairs are designed so that each one has an almost imperceptible hump in the middle. You don't really notice it until the first time you hurry down them, and your foot slides forward on the tiny slope and you land in a heap on the third step from the bottom. Yes, OF COURSE there is a right angle turn there too! You don't think he'd allow you to have scratchless washers or dryers, do you? Besides, when he finds a good gimmick he sticks to it!

Then there's the laundry tubs. Their location is indeed the product of a warped mind. They are tucked in a corner with the two big drains from the bathroom effectively blocking off the third side, so that you have only the one side to work from, and have to lean at a long and precarious angle over the washer in order to guide rinsed clothes through the wringer. As the 'piece de resistance' the floor drain has been calculated to the last fraction of an inch, so that no matter where you place your washer, in order to use your tubs, it will slide slowly down the incline until one leg is resting on the drain, the water is sloshing crazily and the whole thing threatens to tip at any movement.

You will not be surprised to know that we have made arrangements to move in the near future. As we look for a new home I'm going to be on a sharp lookout for the work of the Demon Designer. And all of you who are looking at Real Estate right now, —BEWARE! Take Care! Or YOU may be the next victim of the Addled Architect.
